From: Glenn A. Grant, J.A.D.

Subj: Family – Entry of Default and Uncontested Dissolution Judgments Without Personal Appearances (Divorce on the Papers)

Date: July 19, 2021

Directive #18-20 (issued June 5, 2020) addresses standardized procedures for the entry of default and uncontested judgments without personal appearances in certain dissolution (FM) proceedings. The Directive applies to default cases in which one spouse filed for divorce or termination, properly notified the other spouse, and the other spouse has not filed any response with the court. The Directive also promulgated the Certification in Support of Judgment of Divorce (Certification) (CN12620) and included Request for Default or Uncontested Divorce (Dissolution) Instructions.

Previously, Directive #18-20 required both the plaintiff and defendant to submit the Certification. This Supplement changes that procedure such that only the filing party must complete and submit the Certification when requesting a dissolution judgment without a personal appearance. Attached are the revised Certification and instructions.

Questions regarding this Supplement may be directed to Joanne M. Dietrich, Assistant Director, or Nancy L. Manuele, Chief, Family Practice Division at (609) 815-2900 extension 55350. Additionally, self-represented litigants can contact the court ombudsman in the county where the action is filed or Legal Services of New Jersey at (732) 572-9100 or www.lsnj.org for sample forms.

Request for Default or Uncontested Divorce (Dissolution) Instructions

(Self-represented litigants can obtain sample forms from the Legal Services of New Jersey at www.lsnj.org or by contacting the court ombudsman in the county where you are filing your action.)

All certifications and/or affidavits submitted to the court must be witnessed and/or notarized.

This procedure will be available only in the following situations:

- Divorce/Dissolution of the marriage, civil union, domestic partnership or complaint for annulment with no additional request for relief;
- Divorce/Dissolution of the marriage, civil union, domestic partnership or complaint for annulment with a signed property settlement agreement or the continuation of final orders entered in other proceedings resolving all issues of equitable distribution, custody, parenting time, and child support, with no outstanding issues or assets that need to be addressed by the court.
- Divorce/Dissolution of the marriage or complaint for annulment and a request by the plaintiff to resume any name used before the marriage or assume any surname, consistent with N.J.S.A. 2A:34-21. (See section IV below).

NOTE: The judge has discretion to require a court appearance if any relief sought would inappropriately affect the defendant's rights. If an appearance is required, the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney will be notified in advance.

PROCEDURES

1. Request for Default Divorce/Dissolution Without a Court Appearance

The request for divorce without a court appearance must be made in writing at the same time the Request to Enter Default is filed.

2. Request for the Entry of an Uncontested Divorce without a Court Appearance

The request for divorce without a court appearance shall be made in writing by both parties.

NEXT STEPS

1. Court staff will review the documents submitted. If the documents are incomplete, court staff will send a deficiency notice to plaintiff or plaintiff's counsel requiring that it be corrected. If the deficiencies are not satisfied within ten (10) days or at the discretion of the judge, the case will proceed with the requirement of a court appearance.
2. If the documents appear to be in order, the case will be forwarded to a judge for review within five (5) days of the submission. If the judge is satisfied, the Judgment for Divorce/Dissolution will be signed and mailed to the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney. The plaintiff or their attorney must serve (properly deliver) the judgment to the defendant and their attorney.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

The following documents must be filed with the court to proceed with divorce/dissolution on the papers (without a court appearance). Note: Many of the documents listed below may have already been filed and do not need to be refiled with the court.

1. Verified Complaint for Divorce, Annulment, Dissolution of a Civil Union or Domestic Partnership;
2. Proof of Service of the defendant;
3. In adultery cases, notice to the alleged adulterer and proof of service, which shall include that the alleged adulterer has not moved to intervene (file a court document) or otherwise respond to the notice;
4. Request to Enter Default (Only required if filing for a default divorce.);
5. Certification of Affidavit of Non-Military Service with proof of the appropriate search (Only required if filing for a default divorce.);
6. Certification of Non-Collusion, R. 5:4-2 (c);
7. Certification or Affidavit of Insurance, R. 5:4-2 (f);
8. Confidential Litigant Information Sheet (CLIS), R. 5:4-2 (g);
9. Certification of Divorce Dispute Resolution, R. 5:4-2 (h);
10. Certification that the plaintiff signed the complaint and that all the allegations in the complaint are true (Only required if filing for a default divorce.);
11. An original of the Proposed Final Judgment of Divorce, Annulment or Dissolution of a Civil Union or Domestic Partnership that states that the matter was heard on the papers submitted and that the court made no findings on the merits;
12. Uniform Summary Support Order, if applicable (if filing for an uncontested divorce), and the related child support guidelines worksheet;
 - a. If there is a deviation from the guidelines, a statement of reasons for the deviation.
13. Certification in Support of Judgment of Divorce

a. Continuation of Prior Orders

If the plaintiff requests the continuation of prior final orders, the complaint or certification must include copies of those order(s) and they must be identified in the body of the certification.

b. Name Change

If the plaintiff requests a name change, the complaint or certification must include the last 4 digits of the plaintiff's social security number and plaintiff's date of birth. It shall also confirm that the plaintiff:

- Has not been convicted of a crime under the name used during the marriage (if this is answered in the affirmative, an appearance and testimony will be required for the name change application);
- Is not the subject of any criminal investigation or prosecution;
- Is not planning to file for bankruptcy; and
- Is not changing their name to avoid creditors.

- a. There are no other outstanding property or debt to be distributed.

- b. There are no other outstanding issues between the plaintiff and defendant.

- c. I understand that all prior orders not specifically referenced in the Final Judgment of Divorce or dissolution will be vacated upon the entering of the Final Judgment, but no restraining order entered under the Prevention of Domestic Violence Act shall be vacated by the entry of the Judgment of Divorce.

- d. I wish to continue a restraining order previously entered under the Prevention of Domestic Violence Act.

II. MARITAL SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

(Complete this section only if the parties have an agreement.)

I have reached an agreement with the other party and certify to the following:

1. I understand that if a Property or Marital Settlement Agreement (Agreement) was provided, I have the right to an independent review of the Agreement.

2. The Agreement was the result of negotiations between the plaintiff and defendant.
3. I request the incorporation of the Agreement into the Final Judgment of Divorce.
4. I have read and understand the Agreement fully and it is fair and reasonable.
5. I understand that the court is not going to decide on the merits of the Agreement, only that it finds the parties understand the Agreement to be fair and reasonable.
6. I was not coerced or forced into the Agreement.
7. I agree to be bound by the terms of the Agreement and am asking the judge to make the Agreement part of the Final Judgment of Divorce.
8. I understand that if the Agreement is made a part of the Final Judgment of Divorce, it will be as enforceable as any other court order.
9. I was not under the influence of any drug or alcohol today, nor at the time I negotiated, read and/or signed the Agreement that would impair my ability to understand the nature or terms of the Agreement.
