

1.12 GENERAL PROVISIONS FOR STANDARD CHARGE
(Approved 11/98)

Q. Deliberations

You are not advocates for either party. You are judges of the facts. Your sole interest is to determine the truth from the evidence in the case.

It is your duty, as jurors, to consult with one another and to deliberate with a view to reaching an agreement, if you can do so without compromising your individual judgment. Each of you must decide the case for yourself, but do so only after an impartial consideration of the evidence with the other jurors.
