Subject: [External]Public name changes

My name is Starlet Carbins and my daughter Ashley Moore, a trans woman, died in April. There is absolutely no need or reason for anyone to have to publish their changed name publicly. It invites fear and uncertainty. People deserve the right to privacy and this should be granted to them. This requirement should be removed at once.
