Clarification of Certain Rule 1:43 Fees - Notice to the Bar December 24, 2014Does the $300 filing fee for a complaint in divorce include the parent education fee?

The $300 filing fee is for the divorce (dissolution) complaint only. In applicable cases, an additional $25 may be required for the parent education fee pursuant to N.J.S.A. 2A:34-12.1 et seq.

My substitution of attorney has been returned for insufficient filing fee. Is there a fee associated with this document?

There is a $35 fee for substitutions of attorney under the “recording instruments not otherwise provided for” language of Rule 1:43 in Civil, Special Civil, General Equity (including Foreclosure), and Family (for dissolution matters and post-disposition non-dissolution matters only).

Please note that because of necessary programming changes that have not yet been completed, the collection of the substitution of attorney fees in Family and Special Civil will not be effective until January 16, 2015.

Is there a fee for a Notice of Appearance?

Where the Notice of Appearance is filed as the first paper pleading in a Civil or Family matter, the filing fee is $175.

Rule 1:43 provides for a $50 fee for Civil, General Equity (including Foreclosure), and Family (all dissolution matters and post-disposition non-dissolution matters only) for Notices of Appearances not filed as a first appearance in Civil or for a general appearance in Family.

There is a $30 fee for a Notice of Appearance in Special Civil for the limited purpose of filing an appearance in lieu of an answer for Special Civil DC dockets.

Please note that because of necessary programming changes that have not yet been completed, the collection of the Notice of Appearance fees in Family will not be effective until January 16, 2015.

What is the appropriate fee for a counterclaim, cross claim or third party complaint?

The fee for counterclaims, cross claims or third party complaints is $250 if submitted as an independent, responsive pleading in Civil or in General Equity (including Foreclosure). Since these actions institute a new claim against one or more parties, for fee purposes they are treated similarly to complaints. Cross claims and counterclaims in Small Claims cases are charged a filing fee of $30.

When an answer has been filed and the filing party seeks to file a counterclaim, cross claim or third party complaint, the filing fee is an additional $75, which represents the differential between the initial pleading fee of $250 and the already-paid answer fee of $175. The maximum fee charged for an answer or amended answer with a counterclaim, cross claim and/or third party complaint is $250.

Clarification of Certain Rule 1:43 Fees - Notice to the Bar February 27, 2015What is the fee for an Answer to a Cross-claim, Answer to a Counterclaim, or Answer to a Third-Party Complaint in the Superior Court?

Since these Answers are made in response to a new cause of action, there is a fee for filing the responsive pleading to those actions. The fee for each of these document types is $175.00.

What is the fee for an Order to Show Cause with a Verified Complaint?

The fee is $300.00. Of this, $250 is allocated to the Complaint and $50 is allocated to the Order to Show Cause. In cases, where the complaint has been filed, there is a $50 fee for filing an Order to Show Cause.

What is the fee to file a Warrant of Satisfaction?

The fee associated with a Warrant of Satisfaction depends upon whether there is a docketed judgment associated with the matter. The fee to file a Warrant of Satisfaction on a case without a docketed judgment is $35.00. The fee to file a Warrant of Satisfaction on a case that has a docketed judgment is $50.00.

What is the appropriate fee for a counterclaim, cross claim, claim for contribution, or third party complaint?

Since these actions institute a new claim against one or more parties, for fee purposes they are treated similarly to complaints. The fee for counterclaims, cross claims, claims for contribution, or third party complaints is $250 if submitted as an independent, responsive pleading in Civil or in General Equity (including Foreclosure).

When an answer has been filed and the filing party subsequently seeks to file a counterclaim, cross claim, claim for contribution, or third party complaint in Civil or in General Equity, the filing fee is an additional $75, which represents the differential between the already-paid answer fee of $175 and the initial pleading fee of $250. In Special Civil Part (Small Claims section only), the filing fee for a counterclaim is $30.

Where do judgment creditors submit applications for wage executions?

For a docketed judgment filed on a Law Division Civil Part, Chancery Division Family Part, or Chancery Division General Equity matter, the wage application is to be submitted to the vicinage. For a docketed judgment filed on a Special Civil Part matter, the wage application is to be submitted to the Judgment Processing Services Unit of the Superior Court Clerk's Office.

For questions or concerns regarding this fee schedule, please contact Michelle M. Smith, Clerk of the Superior Court, by telephone at 609-421-6100 or by email at michelle.smith@judiciary.state.nj.us.
